

SAPIENZA
UNIVERSITÀ DI ROMA

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCES

CONTACTS AND OFFICE HOURS

Erasmus+ Incoming Students Office:

erasmus.scienzepolitiche@uniroma1.it

(Administrative Spokesperson (RAEF):

Dott. Alessandro Frija)

Students with Disabilities Support:

erasmusincoming@uniroma1.it

Office Hours: Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday 9:30 – 11:30. Available by appointment only (please request via email).

Erasmus Front Desk Hours:

Wednesday 12:00 - 14:00

Additional information about the Erasmus Office are available here.

LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS

Sapienza University does not require any formal language certification.

However, an intermediate level of Italian is strongly recommended to successfully attend courses.

SAPIENZA UNIVERSITY OF ROME (I ROME01)

ERASMUS+ FACTSHEET

INCOMING STUDENTS

ACADEMIC CALENDAR

	From	To
I (Autumn) Semester	Last week of September	End of February
II (Spring) Semester	Last week of February	End of July

You can consult the academic calendar here.

COURSE CATALOGUE

Students at the Department of Political Sciences can choose from over 170 courses across Sapienza University. However, it is mandatory to select at least one course offered directly by the Department of Political Sciences (in English or Italian). Courses from other departments are permitted only if taught in English. The link provides access to the course catalog and class schedules.

The following links provide access to the courses offered by the Department: ITA ENG

SAPIENZA
UNIVERSITÀ DI ROMA

Sapienza University of Rome (I ROME01)
Department of Political Sciences
Area 0312 - Political Sciences

FURTHER INFORMATION ON THE COURSES

No courses are subject to enrollment caps or predetermined limits on student attendance.

Three exam sittings are available in each examination session:

- Winter Session (7 January – 20 February)
- Summer Session (1 June – 20 July)

GUIDES FOR ERASMUS+ INCOMING STUDENTS

This link provides access to the International Students Guide.

The following link provides access to a brief guide for Erasmus+ incoming students at the Department of Political Sciences.

HOUSING

Sapienza University does not offer direct housing or university-managed accommodation for incoming Erasmus students. As Rome is a highly popular international destination, finding accommodation can be challenging. We therefore strongly recommend that students begin their housing search several months before their planned arrival.

